

City Engineer

The City of Pembroke Pines, located in South Florida, is a vibrant and award-winning community known for its cultural diversity, commitment to the arts, and highly rated schools. Home to over 160,000 residents, it offers a blend of a small-town feel with the benefits of a bustling city, including numerous parks, retail destinations, and a variety of recreational programs. The city has a rich history of innovation, including the establishment of the largest municipal-run charter school system in the U.S., serving over 5,000 students. With its natural beauty, superior municipal services, and convenient access to major highways and employment hubs, Pembroke Pines provides an exceptional quality of life.

Salary Range: $120,360 - $200,251 Annually

Benefits:

- Car Allowance
- Cellphone Allowance
- 4 Day Work Week
- Health, Vision Dental
- 15% 401a Employer Contribution

Role Description

This is a full-time, on-site role for a City Engineer located in Pembroke Pines, FL. The City Engineer will oversee municipal engineering projects, manage public infrastructure planning and development, and ensure compliance with local, state, and federal regulations. They will be responsible for coordinating with various city departments, contractors, and stakeholders to complete projects on schedule and within budget. Regular responsibilities include reviewing engineering designs, supervising construction activities, providing technical support, and addressing community inquiries or concerns regarding city infrastructure.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering or related field; Professional Engineering (P.E.) license required
- Comprehensive knowledge of civil engineering principles, practices, and methods
- Proficiency in project management, including planning, budgeting, and scheduling
- Knowledge of applicable local, state, and federal regulations related to engineering and infrastructure projects
- Experience in municipal government or public sector engineering is preferred

Send resumes, references, and cover letters to hrresumes@ppines.com